Every year, Federal Student Aid (FSA) offers a variety of free training opportunities for financial aid professionals through FSA University. All FSA University training is free; however, for workshops, you will need to arrange and pay for your own transportation, meals, and lodging.

NEW FSA University recently launched its new Learning Management System (LMS), now allowing you to search and register for all FSA training events from one convenient location. Through the FSA LMS, you also have online viewing access to all the FSA courses that you are currently registered for!

Find out more and register for current and upcoming FSA training opportunities through the LMS:

Welcome! Howard Weitzner

Today is: Jul 19, 2002

The LMS contains all FSA free training events in a searchable, online catalog and will enable you to register for events, show upcoming workshops and provide you with your transcript. You will also receive email reminders of your upcoming classes.

Here is a helpful hint:

In the Learning Catalog, you can click the GO button to get a list of all the courses and conferences available, or select by a date range and click the GO button to get all the courses and conferences available within that range.

The "Notices" area below helps you stay on top of all your learning. All you need to do is click on the "See All" link next to each item to see a full explanation of each notice.

This list updates each time you log in so your information is always current.
